

Jodhi lands villa work

■ JODHI Meares is putting the finishing touches to a display suite in a new upmarket residential project in South Yarra.

The former wife of businessman James Packer is the "lifestyle collaborator" on the latest development by R Corporation.

The project's first stage involves 20 townhouses and 10 villas. They are priced from $1.45 million to $2.3 million being built around a park in Clara St.

The development, on the site of the City of Stonnington's former transfer station and depot, will be launched on October 21.

